In musical terminology, tempo ("time" in Italian) is the speed or pace of a given piece. In classical music, tempo is typically indicated with an instruction at the start of a piece (often using conventional Italian terms) and is usually measured in beats per minute (or bpm). In modern classical compositions, a "metronome mark" in beats per minute may supplement or replace the normal tempo ...

My shutter speed in this image: 1/30th second. What is a Camera Shutter? Shutter speed exists because of something known as your camera shutter "curtain" which, simply put, is a curtain in front of the camera sensor that stays closed until the camera fires. When the camera fires, the shutter opens and fully exposes the camera sensor to the light that has passed through your lens.

This is the most important report I have ever written. After 20+ years of matching golfers with the right golf ball, I've concluded that there is a huge misconception regarding golf balls, the golf swing, and how the 2 combine to create more distance, control, and lower scores. These days, one can scarcely turn on [a]
